WORKS OF JOHN YEGG

A Daring Burglar Who Attained

Fame in His Line.

HIS NAME A POLICE LEGACY.

It is Now Applied to the Most Dangerous Criminals With Whom the Officers of the Law Have to Contend.

Nitroglycerin in Safe Bursting.

In the expressive slang that permeates police circles throughout the country, a "yegg" is one of the dangerous criminal class.

The question is often asked, "What is a yegg, and how did the expression originate? An answer to the latter part of the query will lead to an elucidation of the first.

Some years ago, when the United States government was experimenting with high explosives, wishing to secure some death dealing and destructive shell that would cause more damage than any before manufactured, some one suggested that nitroglycerin be tried. Up to that time this most powerful of explosives had not been utilized in this way.

The government experts went to work, and the results of their experiments were from time to time published broadcast through the community. At last they succeeded in making a shell in which nitroglycerin was the chief component part and which made all former ones shirk into insignificance.

In a town in the middle west at the time there lived a man named John Yegg. In his earlier days he had been one of the most expert electricians as well as all round experienced mechanics in the country. Later, through drink and bad associates, he had descended to a life of crime, his principal art being that of safe blowing.

He was attracted by the published accounts of the experiments of the government authorities with nitro-glycerin. The thought struck him.

Why could not this be used in blowing safes?

The method at that time was to drill a hole in the safe to be wrecked, fill it with powder or dynamite and then touch the fuse. This method, however, required considerable time to pull off "a job" and was noisy and dangerous.

Yegg went to work on the nitro-glycerin method. He tried it, and it was a complete success. Furthermore, after he had performed job after job

he had the police of the country baffled. They did not know how the work was done. Yegg instructed others in the art, and soon from one end of the country to the other safes were being wrecked, but by what manner no one knew.

Yegg's method was to take some of the explosive which he and those with him called "slop" and, by the way, this term is still extant—and pour it in the crack of the safe near the hinges of the door. The small aperture was then covered with soap to hold the explosive in place. The fuse was applied, and with the explosion off went the doors, slick and clean. The entire job took but a few minutes.

It remained for a young Pinkerton defective to solve the matter on a safe that was blown in Coldwater, Mich.,

where a bank was wrecked and many thousands of dollars secured.

The crime was traced to Yegg and some of his companions, and they were found guilty and sent to prison.

Thereafter those who employed the nitroglycerin instead of the older methods were called "yeggmen" or

"yeggs."

This was the beginning of the term but since that time the application of it has grown greatly. Today a "yegg," viewed from whatever aspect, is the

WON ON A BLUFF.

The Way One Prosperous Merchant

Got His Start in Business.

There is a prosperous merchant in Chicago today who owes his success to his donation of a $5,000 organ to a church at a time when he didn't have money enough to buy a hand organ.

This donation was a case of bluff pure and simple, but the bluff worked and resulted in the subsequent wealth of the lucky bluffer.

John Smith was seeking capital to start in business for himself, but as he had no security worth speaking of he could not borrow the money he needed.

When he had tried every person he could think of who would be likely to have the necessary cash and the inclination to lend it and had been turned down, he conceived the idea of presenting his church with an organ.

Young Napoleon John Smith therefore ordered his organ and allied some future to look out for itself. The manufacturers of the organ never thought

The Bogie Man of First Supervisorial District.

SUPERVISOR BLAIR HART, who has held office for two terms is the only Democrat whose name has been seriously mentioned for Supervisor of the First District, and he will undoubtedly be the nominee of his party to succeed himself at the election in November. He is the Bogie man of the First Supervisorial District, and the mere mention of his name has deterred more than one eligible Republican aspirant for the office to seek a nomination to run against him.

True, Mr. Hart has made a splendid Supervisor, probably one of the best this district has ever had, but why should that make him appear invulnerable at the polls. The Republicans of Sonoma, Glen Ellen and Vallejo Townships have without a doubt many men capable of establishing a record as a public official as good as that accorded to Mr. Hart, yet at the recent Republican convention the office went begging for a candidate willing to go up against this Bogie man of the First District. Finally a David did appear upon the scene and announced himself willing to grapple with the Supervisorial Goliath, whose political path in past campaigns has been strewn with the blasted hopes of ambitious Republican aspirants. J. K. Bigelow of this place threw himself into the breach and filled up a gap on the ticket that for a time threatened to remain wide open for lack of a candidate and will now try conclusions with the Democratic nominee for Supervisor, who ever he may be.

It is not now absolutely certain that Mr. Hart will be Mr. Bigelow's opponent, in which event the chances of the latter's election will be greatly enhanced. The Democrats will nominate next Wednesday and there is a possibility they may put up another man. Should they do so it will not be a one-sided contest by any means; for with the Bogie man out of the way "who's afraid?"

"May the Good Lord Save us from our Friends."

THE resolution introduced by a thoughtless delegate and allowed to slip through the recent Republican County Convention which empowers the Chairman and Secretary of the County Central Committee to oust any committeeman who does not support the party nominees is about the vilest we have ever heard of or read about. The resolution reflects upon the integrity of every one of our county committeemen and is an insult to their manhood. The resolution should never have been read to the delegates, much less passed, and ought to have been consigned to the waste basket with other rubbish. In the name of decency and common sense what was the convention thinking about anyhow to allow such trash to be incorporated into its minutes. Can it be possible that the Democrats are already getting in their deadly work through traitorous delegates to cast discredit on our Republican County Central Committeemen, than whom no finer body of men were ever called together to manage a party campaign? It is just such breaks as this resolution incident that gives emphasis to the remark attributed to ex-Congressman Tom Geary that "the Republicans of this county are a d--n set of fools, else there would not be a Democrat holding office in the Sonoma county court-house to-day." Verily, we Republicans can truly exclaim: "May the good Lord save us from our friends."

Democratic Delegates.

At the Democratic primary election held here Wednesday M. E. Cummings, A. M. Thomson and F. T. Duhring were elected delegates to the county convention which meets in Santa Rosa next Wednesday. The election was a quiet one and the Democrats, profiting by the recent Republican primary in this town, had but one ticket in the field and the election was a veritable love feast.

The following additional delegates were chosen in this valley: Glen Ellen—Robt. P. Hill, J. M. Hill and Will L. Ashe. Agua Caliente—Wm. J. Kearney and J. M. Allison. San Luis—F. Helberg, Henry Rubke and John Watt.

Congressman McKinlay Has Gone East.

Congressman McKinlay left for the East Thursday where he had been called by the National Republican Committee to deliver a series of Tait speeches in Maine and Vermont on our insular possessions. He will return in time to take part in the campaign in this State.

Another Improvement.

Edward Guyot has purchased two and three-quarter acres of land on the Napa and Petaluma road for a modern chicken ranch. He will erect an Eastlake cottage and make other improvements on the holding that will be a credit to the valley.

Suggested by a Lady. "Let me have five two-cent stamps, please," said a lady to the polite young man behind the counter in the post-office.

"Yessum," he said, handing them out. "Can't you let me have them in one piece?" she asked.

"Certainly, ma'am," said the young man. "Can I send them home for you?"

"Oh, no; I don't live far away, and I am going straight home. I wouldn't put you to the trouble." "No trouble at all," said the polite official. "I haven't very much to do today, and I could easily spare an hour."

"Very much obliged," said the lady, smiling sweetly. "Dear me," she added, putting on a stamp, "what a bother it is to stamp letters! Why can't we send letters and let the postoffice send in their bill once a month?"

"They might just as well," said the obliging young man sympathizingly. "I'll mention the fact in my next report to Washington."

"Will you? How nice! But you mustn't mention my name. Say the idea was suggested by a lady."

Catching a Bride. Among certain Siberians the bridegroom is not permitted to have a wife until he can catch her. But they do not give him a fair race in the open. The bride, surrounded by her female friends, awaits him in a big tent. As soon as she sees him she runs off. He follows like a Hippomenes after Atlanta. But instead of obstacles being thrown in the way of the bride they are thrown across the path of the bridegroom. The pursuing groom falls over old women, chairs, tables, stones and fishing rods or is tripped up by ropes. Only when it is feared he might give up and sulk and go away without the fleeing lady is he permitted to overtake her. Then as she falls into his outstretched arms it may be imagined she utters some equivalent of "This is so sudden!"

A Live Steak.

"It is a mistake," said the president of the New York Waiters' club. "To think that an Englishman always wants his beef excessively rare. As a matter of fact, the English like their beef better done than we do. I once saw a waiter," he continued, "serve an English duke with a cut of very, very rare sirloin. The duke looked closely at the slice of bright red meat. Then he said: 'Waiter, just send for the butcher. Will you?'"

"The butcher, sir?" the waiter stammered.

"Yes," said the duke. "This beef doesn't seem to be quite dead yet."

Official Paper of Sonoma.

The Republican County Nominees.

The ticket presented to the people of Sonoma county for their suffrages by the Republican County Convention last Monday is in every sense a good one, and with no bad breaks during the campaign it ought to win out from top to bottom in so strong a Republican county as Sonoma.

For Superior Judges Jos. P. Berry and Thomas Denny are the nominees. Both are able men and as a campaigner the former has no equal.

For the Assembly in this the Fourteenth District H. W. A. Weske has been nominated for reelection.

For Supervisor of this district J. K. Bigelow of this place was the almost unanimous choice of the district convention, and as he is a hustler will no doubt give his Democratic opponent, no matter whom he may be, a run for his money.

The ticket as a whole reflects credit upon the convention which selected it, and the Democrats will have a job on hand to defeat it with their very best men.

H. J. Chauvet of Glen Ellen has commenced another suit in the Superior Court of this county against John Lounibos of El Verano to recover on a promissory note. The former suit was to recover the sum of $5000 and interest. This latter suit is to recover on two notes, one for $90.17 and another for $317.17, executed in favor of Walter Dickens, but which have been assigned to plaintiff.

J. R. Spellacy, an experienced chef, has leased the Dal Poggetto building recently vacated by Harry Johnson, and will re-open the restaurant conducted for several months by the latter, who left for San Francisco last week. SEIZED WITH CRAMPS AND SINKS TO RISE NO MORE.

Young Man Drowns in Sonoma Creek Before the Eyes of His Companions.

Octave Larquier, residing in El Verano, was drowned in Sonoma creek, below the old Hautu Landing, last Tuesday afternoon, before the eyes of his three companions. The party were out for a day's fishing and late in the afternoon the deceased informed his companions that he was going in swimming. They left him and had proceeded down the creek but a short distance when they heard a cry of distress and, looking in the direction of the cry, saw Larquier throw up his hands and sink out of sight. He had gone down for the last time, and as no one in the party could swim nothing could be done to save him. As the drowned man was an excellent swimmer he probably was seized with cramps and rendered helpless immediately after entering the water.

Efforts were made to recover the body by a number of men who had been attracted to the place of the accident, but as the water was very deep and the tide swift the search proved fruitless until late Thursday afternoon, when it was located and brought to the surface by one of the Mellerick brothers about seventy-five yards from the spot where the drowned man was seen to sink.

The deceased, who was a native of France, and aged 26 years, was a brother-in-law of Mr. Edmund De Bats of the Family Hotel, El Verano.

An inquest was held over the remains yesterday morning and a verdict of accidental drowning was rendered by the jury.

The funeral of the unfortunate young man will be held from St. Francis' church this morning at 10 A. M., and the remains will be laid to rest in Mountain cemetery.

SUES TO RECOVER BIG SUM OF MONEY.

Sequel to Alleged Disappearance of $17,215 in Safe Deposit Box of a City Bank.

Some six weeks ago Henry Cailleaud, the wealthy owner of "Buena Vista Ranch," near this place, went to his safe deposit box in the French-American Bank, San Francisco, to take out a sum of money and upon opening the box claimed that all the coin therein, $17,215, had mysteriously disappeared. He raised a great hue and cry at the time about the alleged disappearance, and then the public heard nothing more about the incident, which has now been revived.

On Wednesday last Cailleaud commenced suit in the Superior Court of San Francisco to recover the full amount of the coin which he alleges in his complaint was stolen from his private safe deposit box in the above mentioned bank. He claims that on June 18th he put the coin in the box and did not reopen it again until July 1st, and was horrified to discover that the money was gone. The bank officials deny that a theft was committed and say the alleged disappearance is a pipe dream of Cailleaud's.

Scorpion Sting all But Proves Fatal

Jas. A. Shaw, an old-time resident of this valley, who is now in Durango, Mexico, was recently bitten on the hand by a scorpion. His hand and arm swelled up to immense proportions and for several days his life was despaired of. The doctors, however, through heroic action, succeeded in pulling him through and at latest accounts he was on the road to speedy recovery. The sting of the Mexican scorpion is as deadly as that of the rattlesnake and unless immediate measures are taken to counteract the effect of the deadly poison injected into the system by the sting fatal results usually follow.

Successful Operation.

The many friends of Mrs. L. H. Green will be pleased to learn that the operation performed upon her for appendicitis last Tuesday was a successful one and that she is getting along nicely. The operation of removing the vermiform appendix was performed by Dr. Thomson of this place, assisted by the surgeons of St. Francis' Hospital, San Francisco.

Wedded in San Rafael.

Miss Janet Gowans of El Verano and Mr. W. F. Lindley of Glen Ellen were married in San Rafael last Tuesday. The groom is a popular employee on the Sonoma Valley branch of the Northwestern Pacific railroad. The young couple will make their home in Glen Ellen for the present.

Coon Hunt.

Jas. F. Tate and George Engler went coon hunting with a pack of dogs one night last week. Their hunt was fruitless, however, and after working up and down Sonoma creek until long after midnight gave up the hunt in disgust. The wily varmints evidently got an inkling into the nocturnal visit of the "big game" hunters and took to the mountains.

Foreclosure Suit.

Henry J. Chauvet of Glen Ellen has commenced a foreclosure suit against John Lounibos of El Verano to recover the sum of $5000 and interest. Lippitt & Lippitt of Petaluma are the attorneys for plaintiff.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS IN HARMONIOUS CONVENTION.

Berry and Denny Nominated for Superior Judges — Weske and Whitney for Assemblymen.

J. K. Bigelow is Nominated for Supervisor of This District Without Opposition.

The Republicans of Sonoma county convened in Santa Rosa last Monday in convention to select nominees for Superior Judges, Assemblymen and Supervisors. Also delegates to the State and Congressional conventions which meet in Oakland on the 27th inst. The convention was called to order by A. B. Lemmon, who presided over its deliberations with marked ability. Shortly after the delegates were seated, our Congressman, Hon. Duncan E. McKinlay, was vociferously called upon to address the convention and was led to the platform amid wild cheering and great enthusiasm. It was easy to be seen that he had the delegates with him to a man. Mr. McKinlay made one of his characteristic talks to the delegates and at times he carried the convention off its feet with flights of oratory.

The convention was a harmonious one, but there was a battle royal over the three-cornered contest for Superior Judges. Three names were presented to the convention, to-wit: Judge Thos. Denny (incumbent) of Petaluma, Jos. F. Berry of Santa Rosa and Chas. H. Pond of Healdsburg. Judge Denny received the nomination for one of the Judges by a safe majority, but the contest between Berry and Pond was as close as close could be, Berry winning out over Pond by the bare margin of one vote. The vote for Superior Judges was as follows: Denny, 99; Berry, 88; Pond, 87, and Messrs. Berry and Denny were declared the nominees.

The convention then resolved itself into Assembly districts and nominated H. W. A. Weske of Santa Rosa for Assemblyman from the Fourteenth District, and A. B. Whitney of Healdsburg for Assemblyman from the Thirteenth District.

For Supervisor of the First District J. K. Bigelow of this place was nominated practically without opposition. Vallejo Township had no candidate, while J. H. Weise of Glen Ellen Township, who could have had the nomination had he desired it, refused to allow his name to be used, as he had not the time or money to spare to make a campaign for the office. Two complimentary votes went to N. R. Knight of Schellville and one to L. L. Lewis, Mr. Bigelow receiving 14 votes.

Supervisor I. J. Button was re-nominated in the Fifth District and H. W. Austin in the Third District.

N. R. Knight was chosen a delegate to the State convention and J. H. Weise was selected as the delegate to the Congressional Convention.

CONVENTION NOTES.

United States Senator Geo. C. Perkins was given a vote of appreciation and his course as the senior Senator from California approved by the convention which, however, left Messrs. Weske and Whitney, candidates for Legislative honors, to act independently of the convention in voting for a senator to succeed Mr. Perkins. Congressman Duncan E. McKinlay was unanimously endorsed and its delegates to the Congressional convention were instructed for him.

J. K. Bigelow presided over the deliberations of the First Supervisorial District.

Ranald McDonnell of the Sonoma delegation, in ringing tones, seconded the nomination of Joseph P. Berry for Superior Judge, and voiced the sentiment of this section when he asserted that everybody down this way was for Joe.

Jos. P. Berry's address to the convention in acknowledgment of the honor bestowed upon him as one of its nominees for Superior Judge, was one of the best extemporaneous speeches delivered upon the convention floor.

OUR CELEBRATION SEPTEMBER NINTH

Over $500 Already Donated

Toward the Big Event

—Native Sons Will

Line Up.

At a meeting of the executive committee having in hand the forthcoming celebration in this place on September 9th, held last Tuesday evening, Chairman Bigelow of the finance committee reported that the sum of $510 had already been subscribed in Sonoma alone toward defraying the expenses of the celebration, which will be the biggest of the kind ever before attempted to be carried out here.

There will be a military band of fifty pieces in the parade, which will be participated in by the Native Sons' Parlor of Santa Rosa, Petaluma and other nearby towns in full uniform.

A big barbecue, under the shade trees in our historic plaza, will be another feature. Sam I. Allen of Sebastopol has volunteered to be here and assist in barbecuing the meats, and as he is an adept in the art that part of the day's festivities will be all that the most exacting of epicures could desire.

In addition to the parade and barbecue there will be dedication exercises in the new City Hall, horse racing and a grand ball in the evening at Union Hall.

Much interest is being taken in the celebration not only at home but abroad. For instance, at a meeting of Santa Rosa Parlor of Native Sons held last Wednesday evening its members voted to be present in a body and to wear a special uniform. It will be of white duck, white hat, white shoes and white sash.

Catholic Church Services.

Services will be held in St. Francis Church to-morrow at 8:45 A. M. and in St. Mary's Church, Glen Ellen at a 10:30 A. M.

Wise Talks by the Office Boy.

Politeness is an investment that is often overlooked, but it yields big dividends. If you ever get mistreated in our store the boss would consider it a favor if you would tell him about it—quietly and pleasantly. There's two things he won't stand for—misrepresentation and discourtesy. The young clerks you encounter in some stores act as though they expect customers to chloroform them while they pick out their own goods. No salesman here has any occasion to lose his wits or self-respect. No matter what he offers a customer he can look him squarely in the eye and tell him the truth, and know that he is giving that customer full value for his money. Our prices for strictly high-class goods are as low as cheap imitations are sold in some other stores. Having an immense output, we buy as jobbers, so we are in a position to make good any claim we make. If people only knew how good and cheap our goods really are the boss would have to establish branch stores all over the country. Better come in and investigate.

A WILD RACE.

When the First Pony Express Was Nearing Sacramento.

Cornelius Cole, ex-senator from California, tells in his memoirs how the first "pony express" reached Sacramento, Cal., long before the first transcontinental railroad was surveyed. "Those who were there to witness it will never forget the arrival of the first of these express messengers at Sacramento. It was an occasion of great rejoicing, and everybody, big and little, old and young, turned out to see the fun. All business for the time was suspended. Even the courts adjourned for the event. A large number of the citizens of all classes, grave and gay, mounted on fast horses, rode out some miles on the line to meet the incoming wonder.

"The waiting was not long. The little rider upon his blooded charger, under whip and spur, came down upon them like a meteor, but made not the slightest halt to greet his many visitors. Then began a race of all that waiting through over the stretch back to the city, the like of which has never been seen. It may have been rivaled in speed and confusion by some of the cavalry disasters during the war that presently followed, but the peaceful people of Sacramento, I am sure, never beheld anything of the kind before or afterward.

"The whole cavalcade, shouting and cheering, some waving banners and bareheaded, riding at the top of their speed, dashing down J street, might have been taken, had it occurred on the plains, for a band of wild Comanches, but the little mail carrier paid no attention to them and kept in the lead."

A ROMANCE IN TIN.

One Man's Fortune From the Price of a Pair of Shoes.

Some years ago a man who had started in business in Tasmania found that he could not meet his engagements and was compelled to call a meeting of his creditors.

Among his assets were a number of Mount Biscoff tin mine shares, which were regarded as worthless. It was the first tin mine discovered in Tasmania, and the output was not as heavy as the prospectus declared it would be.

The shares dropped in value, and when the debtor offered them to his creditors the latter refused to touch them.

Among the creditors was a poor shoemaker who had supplied the man with a pair of shoes. He offered to take the shares in payment of his debt. No one raised any objection, and he took the shares, saying, "They may turn out well some day."

Five years later, under proper management, the mine developed into a valuable property. It was a veritable mountain of tin, and the shares sprang up to an astonishing point.

Eventually the metal was "cornered" by a French syndicate, and the shares reaching a fabulous price, the once indigent shoemaker sold out and realized a fortune.

The money was wisely invested, and now he is in the enjoyment of an income of several thousands a year derived from the payment for a pair of shoes valued at $3.—London Telegraph.

Absolute Obesity.

There is a member of the faculty of a certain university who, to use the words of a colleague, "is as rotund physically as he is profound metaphysically."

One day the professor chanced to come upon his children, of whom he has a number, all of whom were, to his astonishment, engaged in an earnest discussion of the meaning of the word "absolute."

"Dad," queried one of the youngsters, "can a man be absolutely good?"

"No," replied the father.

"Dad," put in another youngster, "can a man be absolutely bad?"

"No."

"Papa," ventured the third child, a girl, "can a man be absolutely fat?"

Whereupon father did ineffectually. —Philadelphia Ledger.

Making Hubby Appreciative.

A doctor tells of a note he received from a woman saying that her husband, who was about to make him a professional call, found constant fault with the dinner she prepared for him. She appealed to the physician for aid. The doctor examined his patient, who had a slight attack of indigestion, and told her to cut out lunches, to eat nothing but a slice of toast and a cup of tea. The scheme worked excellently. Of course hubby returns home in the evening, eats everything in sight and votes his wife's cooking even better than mother used to make.—Boston Record.

Property Rights.

Private property, in the shape in which we know it today, was chiefly formed by the gradual disentanglement of the separate rights of individuals from the blended rights of a community. There is every reason for believing that property once belonged not to individuals or even the isolated families, but to the patriarchal society as a whole. In other words, property was at first communistic rather than personal.—New York American.

Needed Airing.

"What's the matter with you?" demanded Boreum hotly. "I've got it to air my opinions, haven't I?"

"Oh, of course," replied Brightly. "They're so stale and musty they certainly need something of that sort." —Philadelphia Press.

Practice not your art and twill soon depart.—German Proverb

To Make Waxed Paper.

This is used for keeping substances which contain either a volatile aromatic ingredient or grease, which would penetrate through ordinary paper. On a flat sheet of paper over a gentle fire place a sheet of paper as a base and then lay a second sheet on the top of the first. Coat this second sheet with yellow or white wax and distribute the latter uniformly over the entire sheet by means of a sponge, exerting a little pressure, till the paper is entirely waxed transparent and consequently permeated by the wax. If the fire is too feeble, the process will be retarded. Too powerful a flame is still more harmful, as the paper is liable to become brown or black. Stearin may be used instead of wax.—Der Industriose Geschäftsmann.

Sure to Be There.

An old Scotch farmer was lying on what he thought was his deathbed. He began to give orders to his wife about his funeral and the people to be invited. His wife, knowing that he was not dying, told him that he was not dying, and this so enraged the farmer that he rose on his elbow and cried out:

"What need I speak? There'll be naething dune richt unless I'm there myself!"

His wife, patting him on the shoulder, replied: "Toots, man, Bauldy! Keep yer min' easy. Ye'll be the principal man there!"—Glasgow Times.

Where They Gas Away.

Of the late Laughlin Smith, the brilliant journalist and author of New York, a Denver reporter narrated anecdotes the other day.

"I remember," he said, "my first visit to Washington. Smith, big and handsome and vivacious, showed me about. From an eminence a great pale dome rose up against the blue sky, the dome of the capitol.

"What is that?" said I.

"That," said Smith, "Oh, that's the national gas works."
